How to read your Financial Statements with Anne Douglas from Community Waikato

Understanding your financial documents is an essential part of good governance and management. Board members & Managers have the responsibility to members, stakeholders & employees to ensure that the organisation behaves in a proper manner, has adequate financial policies & procedures and is solvent at all times.

This workshop will assist you in understanding and interpreting your financial statements and reports.

- What financial reports should you be sighting each board meeting?
- What should you be looking for in your financial board reports?
- What questions should you be asking as a Board member?
- What financial management processes does your organisation need in place?

Come to this critical financial focused workshop and find out more.

To be held: Wednesday 27 February 2019 @ Community Waikato, 33 Victoria Street,
